Teresa Casazza Appointed Acting President of Cal-Tax

The California Taxpayers' Association Board of Directors announced today that it has appointed Teresa Casazza as Acting President of the organization, pending the anticipated return of long-time President Larry McCarthy, who is on medical leave.

Casazza has managed the Cal-Tax lobbying team and coalition efforts for the last two years, and has 10 years of experience lobbying elected officials on proposed tax-related legislation and regulations. She is a certified public accountant and a registered lobbyist.

Prior to joining Cal-Tax in February 2005, Casazza worked for the American Electronics Association for 11 years as Vice President of State Public Policy. At AeA, she managed the public policy office and oversaw the association's advocacy program. From 1982 to 1990, she worked for Price Waterhouse as a state and local tax manager.
